

GODSEND TO SUFFERING HUMANITY

These Forceful Words Express Gratitude of Thousands of People Like Mrs. George Arcand, of 537 Erie Street, Toledo, O., Who Has Been Snatched from the Grave by the World's Greatest Tonic Stimulant and Invigorator.

Mrs. Arcand, Whose System Was Run Down, Contracted Grip and Was Treated by Two of the Best Doctors of Toledo Without Receiving Any Benefit. Finally She Was Completely Cured by Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

Mrs. Arcand wrote recently: "Last December I fell a victim of the grippe, and tried two of the best physicians of this city without receiving any benefit, so my retained by the most sensitive stomach.

It cures nervousness, typhoid, malaria, every form of stomach trouble, disease of the throat and lungs, and all rundown and weakened conditions of the body, brain and nerves. It is prescribed by doctors, and is recognized as the world's greatest family medicine everywhere.

CAPTION:—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, be sure you get the genuine. It's the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey, and is sold in sealed bottles only—never in bulk. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken and that our guarantee is on every bottle. Virginia Weddings

Hundley—Hart.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
TAPPAHANNOCK, VA., June 6.—One of the most notable events of the summer season in Southside Virginia was the marriage last Wednesday evening at Harmony Grove Baptist Church, Middlesex county, Va., of Miss Lucy Hollon Hart, of Harmony Village, Va., to Mr. Deane Hundley, of Dunnsville, Essex county, Va.

The church presented a scene of rare beauty. The rarest flowers and evergreens that make June beautiful contributed to the loveliness of the decorations, which were fashioned and executed by many friends of the popular bride and groom.

Promptly at 7:30 the procession of attendants formed, and to the inspiring strains of the "Lohengrin" wedding march, softly rendered by Miss Alice Stiff, preceded the bride to the altar. Following the bridesmaids and groomsmen entered the maid of honor and cousin of the bride, Miss Bessie Hart, bearing a bouquet of roses and ferns. She was followed by little Cleora Nicholson, the bride's niece, who acted well the part of flower girl, and carrying a basket of roses and daisies. The queenly bride entered leaning upon the arm of her brother, Mr. Goodwin Hart, and was met by the groom with his brother and best man, Dr. Preston Hundley. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John T. T. Hundley, brother of the groom, assisted by Rev. H. J. Goodwin, the bride's pastor. The bridesmaids were Misses Mary Lyle, of Baltimore, Md.; Mabel Menley, of Baltimore, Md.; Gladys Hoskins, of Dunnsville, Va.; Vay Garnett, of Dunnsville, Va.; Marion Dutton, of Harmony Village, Va.; Salome Stiff, of Harmony Village, Va.; Annie Newcomb, of Gloucester, Va.; and Susie Duvall, of Gloucester, Va. They wore gowns of white chiffon cloth, with satin sashes and gloves to match, and carried bouquets of ferns and daisies.

The groomsmen and ushers were Messrs. Catesby Ware, of Dunnsville, Va.; John Marshall Lewis, of Gloucester, Va.; R. Holman Willis, of Buena Vista, Va.; Philip M. Gresham, of Lancaster, Va.; Marion G. Willis, Jr., of Fredericksburg, Va.; Walter B. Tyler, of Richmond, Va.; Thomas Lawson, of Harmony Village, Va.; Larkin Anderson, of Montague, Va.; B. F. Hart, Jr., of Harmony Village, Va.; Clinton Stiff, of Harmony Village, Va.; Eubank Hart, of Harmony Village, Va., and Earl Segar.

The bride's wedding gown was of white messaline satin, trimmed with Irish lace, and she wore a tulle veil, fastened with a rope of pearls. The groom wore a handsome suit of conventional black.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hart, of Harmony Village, Va., and is richly endowed with rare beauty of person and character. The groom is a son of the late John T. T. Hundley, of Essex county, Va., and a prominent attorney in his section of the State.

He is a member of the college fraternity of Pi Kappa Alpha. A fact worthy of mention is that six of his fraternity mates who were in college with him, were his groomsmen.

After the wedding, the happy pair departed for Niagara and other points of interest. Upon their return they will reside at "Hundley Hall," the ancestral home of the groom, at Dunnsville, Va.

Putney—Johnson.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LOUISA, VA., June 6.—One of the most beautiful marriages ever witnessed in Louisa was solemnized in the Baptist Church here Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Beulah Olivia Johnson, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Johnson, of this place, became the bride of Rev. Floyd W. Putney, of Fredericksburg, Md.

The church was artistically and elaborately decorated with evergreens, palms, ferns and other potted plants. Miss Anna Goodwin presided at the organ, and played the wedding march "Lohengrin" as a professional soloist. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Webster, of Chester, Pa.

The bride, who is a handsome brunette, looked charming in a gown of white messaline over tulle, trimmed with point de venise lace. The costume was adorned with a spray of lily of the valley, and a brooch of pearls and diamonds, and carried a shower bouquet of lily of the valley and white orris.

Mrs. Senator Floyd King, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and was gowned in white crepe de chine over tulle, trimmed with lace, and carried a bouquet of white lilies.

Miss Evelyn Johnson, another sister, was maid of honor, and wore pink crepe de chine over silk and carried a bouquet of carnations. Groomsmen wore full-dress suits.

Other bridesmaids wore dresses of white net over white silk, and carried bouquets of ferns tied with green gauze ribbon. They were Miss Mamie Johnson, with Mr. William D. Quattlebaum, of South Carolina; Miss Annette Bowles, of Clifton Forge, with Rev. C. M. Robertson, of Richmond; Miss Willie Schenck, of Richmond, Va., with Mr. Harry Powell, of Clifton Forge; Miss Ruby James, of Richmond, with J. W. Johnson, brother of the bride; Little Miss Marjorie King, niece of the bride, looked lovely in a white china silk sun-plaited and trimmed with lace. She carried the ring in a calla lily.

After the ceremony the bridal party and a few friends were entertained at the home of the bride at a reception, when the bride's cake was cut and refreshments of salads, loaves, fruits, etc., were served; the color scheme in the house decorations being pink and white.

The couple left by a midnight train for a Northern trip and will be at home to their friends after June 15th in Fredericksburg, Md. The bride's going-away gown was of blue silk, with hat to match.

Rev. Mr. Putney is a son of Mr. W. W. Putney, of Cumberland county, Va.

Corbin—Lyon.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
DANVILLE, VA., June 6.—A wedding of much interest was performed here on Wednesday evening, when Miss Lucy Lynne Lyon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Lyon, became the bride of Mr. George Wesley Corbin, of this city. The ceremony was performed at the Christian Church, in the presence of a large gathering of friends, the Rev. Thomas R. Reeves, pastor of the Mount Vernon Methodist Church, officiating.

Mr. Corbin is the son of Mr. George C. Corbin, of this city, and holds a responsible position with the First National Bank. Mr. and Mrs. Corbin left for a wedding tour to Washington, New York and other Northern points, and upon their return will make their future home in this city.

Keeler—Scates.

DANVILLE, VA., June 6.—Miss Mable G. Scates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Scates, of Patrick county, and the Rev. George T. Keeler, pastor of the Methodist Church at Bassett's, Patrick county, were united in marriage Wednesday morning at the Hunter Church, in the presence of a large number of friends. Dr. W. H. Atwell, of this city, presiding elder for the Danville circuit of the Methodist Church, officiated.

Mahoney—Kelley.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ALEXANDRIA, VA., June 6.—The marriage of Mr. James P. Mahoney, of this city, and Miss Minnie L. Kelley, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., took place Wednesday evening last at St. Mary's Catholic Church. The Rev. L. P. Kelly, assistant pastor, performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Mahoney will reside here. The groom is a railway mail clerk.

Weddings Announced.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SPOTSYLVANIA, VA., June 6.—Announcement has been made of the coming marriage of Miss Virginia Ellen Lewis, of West Virginia, to Mr. Charles M. Emerson, of Virginia. The marriage will take place at the home of the bride's parents on June 30th next, at high noon. Mr. and Mrs. Emerson will reside in Virginia.

Invitations Issued.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
APPOMATTOX, VA., June 6.—Rev. and Mrs. Hugh C. Smith have issued cards to the marriage of their niece, Margaret Lena Elam, to Mr. Amos Worrell Gillette, to take place Tuesday, June 10th, in the Mt. Street Baptist Church, at Emporia, Va. Miss Margaret is well and favorably known in Appomattox. She also taught in Spout Spring Academy, where she has many friends.
